The RPRA's mission is to:

- promote a vision of the Village of Rockcliffe Park as a vibrant, heritage-designated community, determined to preserve and enhance its unique natural, architectural, social and cultural environment as well as its rich history and quality of life, for the lasting benefit of future generations.
- foster the sense of community in the Village.
- nurture, conserve and maintain the natural environment of the Village, to protect and preserve the heritage character of the Village and to represent the interests of the residents of the Village.
- contribute to the well-being of the greater community of the City of Ottawa

Highlights of 2010 RPRA Activities

- Partnering with our neighbouring communities in the Candidates' Forum prior to the municipal election
- Community events such as the children's parties, Community Carol Sing and Christmas tree lighting and the lunch and evening Speakers program;
- Street designs consistent with the traditional environment of the Village,
- Meetings with City staff to improve winter road service;
- Monitoring Pond water quality and meeting with City officials to solve the bylaw and vandalism problems at the Pond
- Raising $17,000 in 2009 for the Rockcliffe Library branch through the April book sale;
- 6 Newsletters to inform residents of events and key issues of concern;
- Support for the popular rink and soccer programs
- Removal of invasive species in the Caldwell-Carver Conservation Area (woodlot)
